Approved For Release 2000/08/24 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000100320009-3

CIA Names Chretien To Say No Comment'

CPYRGHT

The Central Intelligence Agency yesterday but, a new man on the job to y; "No comment."

He is Paul M. Chretien, whose job up to now has been ably past retirement age, Mcton, brief diplomats, military attaches and other Govern felt he had been doing such ment afficials. He succeeds a fine job, CIA officials said. The job is called assistant to the director but it is the press during for regimes of walter had been doing such to the director but it is the nearest thing CIA has ever had official spakesman.